

a Case 127: three different mappings, the same minimum event count

140-reaction coordinate set · GRAFT: 3 classes · SLAP sweep: 3 · Native SLAP: 1

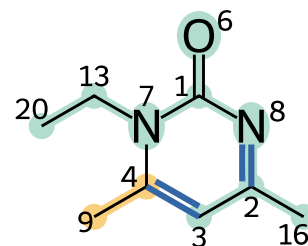

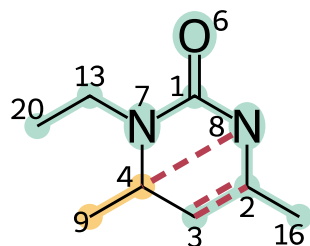

● ● ● Matched fragments keep their colors

--- Break / weaken

— Form / strengthen

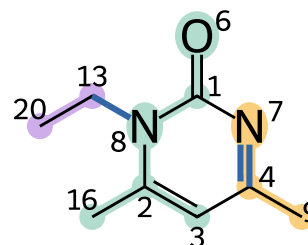

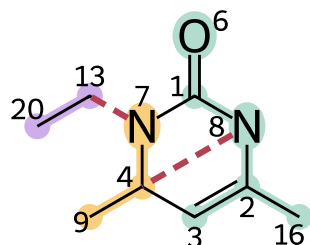

A 4 events

2 negative
2 positive

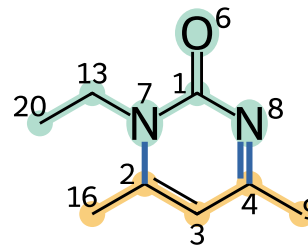

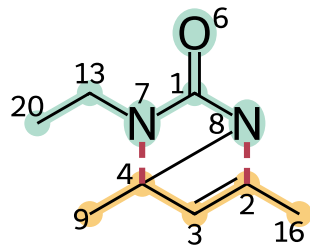

B 4 events

2 negative
2 positive

C 4 events

2 negative
2 positive

Atom numbers track reactant identities. Colors are assigned within each row; spectator H atoms are implicit.

b Symmetry remains inside one candidate

Candidate A: exchange two H atoms of methyl C₉.

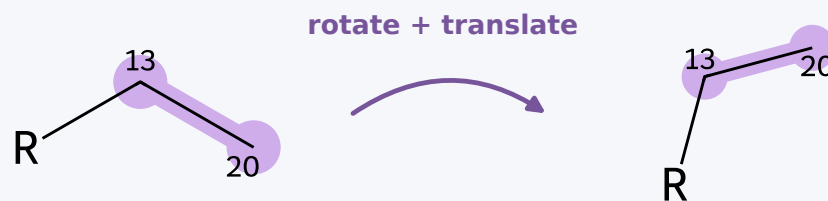

Certified allowed · same event class

R = the rest of the molecule; all other assignments fixed.

c Retain the fragment for geometric use

Candidate B: the ethyl group stays together.

Preserve internal bonds; refine reacting contacts

Possible TS preparation; no pathway validation is claimed.